Vietnam has successfully established itself as a topnotch destination for foreign direct investment, thanks to its increasing integration with world markets. Thailand has consistently been in the top 10 investors in Vietnam over the last 5 years.

Further, the biggest seaport and industrial hubs of North Vietnam have invested massively in state-of-the-art multimodal infrastructures. These developments together with other advantages (such as tax package) bring tremendous business opportunities for manufacturing, logistics and service companies.

For Thai businesses to take full advantage of those developments, leaders from Vietnam government together with experts from Tricor Vietnam, Cushman and Wakefield Vietnam, and DEEP C Industrial Zones Haiphong are going to share insights regarding investment opportunities as well as practical aspects of doing business in Vietnam, from tax and accounting or legal setup.
